Canadian Mail Product Agreement #40785098 Mailed @ Sanford, MB

As we head into the festive season we need to take time to reflect on this great profession we have chosen. As a percentage of the population we are becoming fewer each year, as we work with 'Mother Nature' to provide a wholesome beef product to feed consumers. No other occupation affords you the ability to work with your family by your side, enjoying the beauty and sometimes trials of whatever weather conditions we are dealt. As other breeds have struggled at weaning time with calves lacking muscle and dimension to attract buyers, Limousin X calves have brought in premiums, and cull animals with Limousin muscle traits have been rewarded. All the best in 2009 as you calve, breed and raise the quality Limousin cattle that we have become known to produce. Suggestions, creative ideas, and constructive criticisms are always welcomed.

Respectfully, Cheryl

Live Long, Laugh Often, and love always!

A blonde teenager, wanting to earn some extra money for the summer, decided to hire herself out as a "handy-woman" and started canvassing a nearby well-to-do neighborhood. She went to the front door of the first house, and asked the owner if he had any odd jobs for her to do.

"Well, I guess I could use somebody to paint my porch," he said, "How much will you charge me?" Delighted, the girl quickly responded, "How about $50?"

The man agreed and told her that the paint brushes and everything she would need was in the garage. The man's wife, hearing the conversation said to her husband, "Does she realize that our porch goes ALL the way around the house.

He responded, "That's a bit cynical, isn't it?" The wife replied, "You're right. I guess I'm starting to believe all those dumb blonde jokes we've been getting by e-mail lately."

Later that day, the blonde came to the door to collect her money.

"You're finished already?" the startled husband asked.

"Yes, the blonde replied, and I even had paint left over, so I gave it two coats."

Impressed, the man reached into his pocket for the $50.00 and handed it to her along with a ten dollar tip.

"And by the way, " the blonde added, "it's not a Porch, it's a Lexus."

Thought for the Day!

Life isn't about how to survive the storm, but how to dance in the rain!
